Cheshire developer releases prices of stylish new town centre apartments

PROSPECTIVE purchasers can now take advantage of off-plan prices to secure the home of their choice from among top-of-the-range apartments now being built in Nantwich.

Local developer, Seddon Homes, has experienced strong interest since announcing the development of 24 two-bedroom apartments, off Pillory Street, close to the town centre.

Now buyers can see for themselves the layout and design features of the properties by visiting the newly-opened marketing suite between 10am and 5pm Thursday – Saturday.

Prices for the development, named Sleepers' Point, have also been announced. They will start from £156,450.

The modern, three-storey building offers stylish new homes in a sought-after location, with easy access to local facilities.

Each apartment will have a designated parking space through a remote-controlled portcullis-gated entrance.

Seddon Homes' parent company, Seddon Group, has its headquarters in Holmes Chapel.

Seddon Homes Sales and Marketing Director, Denis Maddock, said: "Homebuyers choose Seddon because we build to some of the highest standards in the industry.

"We've had a healthy number of inquiries since announcing details of the Sleepers' Point development and we now expect to convert them quickly into firm reservations."

Seddon Homes is currently building 16 developments in the North West, with 11 in Cheshire, including sites at Congleton, Middlewich and Nantwich.

Founded in 1897, Seddon Group is one of the UK's biggest privately-owned construction groups.

It directly employs more than 1,200 people on a wide range of commercial projects, including shopping centres, social housing and inner city regeneration work.
